At the corner of Sixth and Main in downtown Cincinnati stands the quadratic masterpiece known as the Contemporary Arts Center (CAC 513-345-8400).
World-renowned female architect Zaha Hadid's visionary design perfectly suits the vibe of unconventional art circulating within. Lofty ceilings, sky-high glass, floating staircases and curved walls of polished concrete invite visitors to explore this avant-garde urban landscape.